

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON
ULTRA LOW TEMPERATURE PHYSICS

AUGUST 17-21, 2017
HEIDELBERG

INFORMATION FOR EXHIBITORS AND SPONSORS

ULT is a triennial International Conference on Ultra Low Temperatures Physics that provides an international forum to discuss new physics in condensed matter systems at temperatures below 1 Kelvin, to identify new research directions, and to discuss technical challenges and innovations. The conference aims to bring together a broad community of researchers, spanning the field, to forge links between different experimental communities as well as between experimentalists and theorists.

Topics include: Quantum fluids and solids, quantum matter under extreme conditions, quantum phase transitions and quantum criticality, quantum transport and quantum turbulence, non-equilibrium quantum systems, nuclear magnetism, nano-electronics and nano-mechanical systems, new cooling technologies, sensors, amplifiers and detectors at the quantum limit.

ULT-2017 is expecting more than 250 physicists representing more than 50 top-level universities and research institutes worldwide. Technologies commonly used by ULT researchers include cryogenics, cryo-electronics, thin-film deposition, nano- and micro-fabrication, data acquisition and analysis, etc.

EXHIBITION

VENUE

The ULT-2017 exhibitor spaces will be located in the foyer of the Kirchhoff Institute for Physics directly in front of the conference lecture hall. A detailed floor plan can be found on page 7. During coffee breaks, lunch breaks and poster sessions no other events will be scheduled, giving exhibitors the opportunity to promote their products and offer information to all conference participants.

DATES

Core time of trade exhibition: from Friday August 18th, 9:00 AM to Sunday August 20th, 1:00 PM.

Set up can be started as early as Thursday August 17th, 9:00 AM and should be finished by Friday August 18th, 9:00 AM

The dismantling of exhibits and removal of display materials must be finished by	Monday	August 21 st ,	6:00 PM
Check-in / Registration starts	Thursday	August 17 th ,	4:00 PM

Presently, two scientific poster sessions are planned on Friday and Saturday afternoon. All registered participants are invited to one of the planned excursions scheduled on Sunday afternoon. Additionally, there will be the conference dinner for all registered participants on Sunday evening at the Heidelberg castle.

EXHIBITOR SPACES

The present plan foresees seventeen 'single' exhibition spaces (booths), 1a, 1b, 2a, ... , 8b, 9, as displayed in the floor plan on page 7. The booths can also be booked pairwise as 'double' booths and will be sold on first-come-first-served basis.

Each booth includes:

- An area of about 2 m × 2.5 m for most of the booths (see floor plan).
- Up to two tables (0.6 m × 1.8 m), on request.
(The arrangement of tables as shown in the floor plan is not mandatory.)
- Up to five chairs, on request.
- Three power sockets (220V, CEE 7/4 = type F) single phase. Please inform the local organizers if your power consumption will exceed 500W. Three-phase can be supplied on request.
- Wireless internet access
- Link to exhibitor's web-site for contact information, or online catalog, etc., with a small logo (maximum 100x100 pixels) on the 'exhibitors' web-page of the conference.
- Coffee, drinks and snacks at the conference refreshment tables for all exhibitors and announced assistants.
- No booth separation walls / poster walls.
- THE BOOTH FEE DOES NOT INCLUDE ANY PARTICIPANT REGISTRATION FEE.

Booths 5a thru 9 have ceiling-high windows in the back (west side) facing the central square of the campus. In booths 2b and 3a, due to wall-mounted permanent information displays, tall poster walls are restricted to about half of the booth's width, as indicated in the floor plan. In case the number of applicants exceeds the present plan, additional booths will be located in the entrance hall on the north side of the building, replacing some of the poster walls.

FEES

- Single booth, about 2 meters front side (see floor plan): € 1000 (including VAT)
- Double booth, about 4 meters front side (see floor plan): € 1500 (including VAT)

WORKSHOP REGISTRATION FEE

For each exhibit space, at least one exhibitor is required to register as regular participant for the Workshop. Additional exhibitors or assistants are permitted for set-up, take-down, and staffing of the exhibit area, but the Workshop sessions and events are for registered participants only.

ADDITIONAL OPTIONS

Item	Price (including VAT)
• Helium storage can (100 liters, KF-50), Fri-Sun	400 Euro

SHIPPING/RECEIVING

Exhibitors are responsible for receiving their own exhibits and exhibit materials. Please do not ship materials to Kirchhoff-Institute for Physics or Heidelberg University. In special cases the local organizers may be contacted for help.

PAYMENT

All above rates are in Euro.

According to the German tax policy, the value added tax (VAT) is 19% and is included in the reported rates.

Upon receipt of the signed application form a contract and an invoice will be sent by the ULT-2017 organizing committee. Payment and return of the signed contract is due within 14 days from the invoice date.

The mandatory registration of at least one participant in case of exhibiting without a sponsorship contract is done online and can be paid by bank transfer or credit card.

Sponsorship and Exhibition fees can only be paid by direct bank transfer to:
